

St. Louis Interfaith Conference on Drone Warfare

Eden Theological Seminary
475 East Lockwood Ave.
St. Louis, Missouri

Friday, June 8, 2018

10 AM to 4 PM

Why is the faith community concerned about drone warfare?

Are civilians protected in drone warfare?

What is the effect of drone warfare on drone operators?

What does it mean to say: "Kill one terrorist and create 10 more terrorists?"

Presenters include:

Bishop Richard E. Pates, Bishop of the Catholic Diocese of Des Moines and former chair of the International Justice and Peace Committee of the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops

Matt Hawthorne, Policy Director, National Religious Campaign Against Torture, Washington, DC

Rev. Dr. David Greenhaw, president, Eden Theological Seminary, St. Louis, Missouri

Michael McPhearson, national executive director of Veterans for Peace

Maryann Cusimano Love, professor of politics, Catholic University, Washington, DC

Two films produced by the Interfaith Network on Drone Warfare for congregations will be screened.

Registration is $20, or $10 for students/seniors. We will break at midday for Dhuhr prayer for those who wish to pray. For those not observing the Ramadan fast, lunch will be provided.

Please register at <https://www.eden.edu/events/drone-warfare/>.
