

Stay Up To Date With The Happenings At Eden

As we are nearing the ending point of the semester and approach the Thanksgiving break, we are reminded of the abundant reasons to give thanks. Together, we have delved deeper into theological exploration, cultivated meaningful connections, and witnessed the grace of growth in our community. Thanksgiving offers us a sacred pause to reflect on God's blessings and recharge for the weeks ahead. Whether you're traveling, spending time with loved ones, or simply enjoying a moment of rest, we pray this season fills your heart with gratitude and renewal.

Get Involved

The upcoming year provides lots of ways for you to continue being involved. A variety of Certificates, Cohorts and Community Learning opportunities enable learning for a lifetime and theological education for everyone.

Organizing Seminar: Organizing for Peace in the Time of War (Gaza, Ukraine, Myanmar, Haiti)

December 6th 2024 -12:00 pm until 4:00 pm

How do we organize in a time of war? What theological guidance do we need in the time of war? In this workshop we ground ourselves in theologies of peace, these are not theologies that encourage us to hide or escape. These are theologies that guide us in deepening relationships across cultures and contexts. We will then explore these theologies as we reflect on organized responses to genocide and war in Gaza, Myanmar, Haiti, and Ukraine. For more information and to register click here.

Persisting in Hope: Reflections on Democracy after the 2024 Election (Annual Bracke Lecture)

This was a powerful forum for grounding leaders in the work of persisting in hope following the election. Bishop Daughtry brought incisive political analysis coupled with a brilliant call to faith leaders in these times. Eden alumni Rev. David Gerth, Rev. Julie Jennings, and Rev. Dr. Dietra Wise Baker, along with our colleague and friend, Rabbi Andrea Goldstein, offered inspiring insight on how they are doing that as leaders.
